ISAAC HALL,
DANIEL PEASLEE,

THE ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
Superintending School Committee.

DISTRICT No. 1.

N. A. WENTWORTH, Prudential Committee.

MISS HATTIE J. BRADLEY, teacher for the Summer and Fall terms.

This school always appeared well, at all times when visited by your Committee. We were pleased with the manner of teaching. There was no attempt to display, but there was much that was quiet, sensible and practical in the means employed, and it seemed evident that good progress had been made in the different branches taught.

The pupils in this school are much interested in writing and during the past three years have made much improvement in this important branch of education.

The winter term of eight weeks was taught by your Committee. We think that good progress in study was made by nearly all the scholars. There were twenty-nine weeks of school in this district, ten in the summer, eleven in the fall and eight in the winter. The whole number of pupils was 32. All attended to Reading and Spelling, 13 to Penmanship, 12 to Arithmetic, 13 to Geography, 8 to Grammar, and in winter 2 to History.

Names of scholars not absent or tardy, Hattie E. Denoncour, Lizzie Kelleher, Daniel Kelleher and S. Henry Steel.

DISTRICT No. 2.

ISAAC H. POLLARD, Prudential Committee.

MISS CORA B. POLLARD, teacher for the year.

The number of children in this district has diminished, so that the school is somewhat smaller in numbers than formerly. Miss Pollard's scholars were very quiet and orderly in their deportment and it was evident in their recitations that their lessons had been carefully and thoroughly studied. Both of the closing examinations were very pleasant and gave evidence of good work on the part of both teacher and pupils.

There were twenty-five weeks of school, ten in the summer, and fifteen in the autumn and winter. All the scholars attended to Reading and Spelling, 13 to Writing, 13 to Arithmetic, 8 to Geography, 5 to Grammar, and 1 to History.

Names of pupils not absent or tardy.. 1st term Rosa G. Harris, Eliza A. Austin, and Ashley H. George, 2nd term Nellie L. Hadley, Rosa G. Harris, and Clara A. Page.

DISTRICT No. 3.

J. M. QUIMBY, Prudential Committee.

MISS HELEN F. MERRILL, teacher for the summer.

Miss Merrill was naturally a rigid disciplinarian and the school bore evidence of the fact. All may not have approved of some of her methods, but the discipline was there, and the school at its closing examination made a very fine appearance. Miss Merrill was ambitious in regard to her school and thought in a second term, to correct any defects of the first, but her health failed, and death soon closed all her earthly labors.

Miss Luella Crockett succeeded as teacher of the fall term. Miss Crockett labored faithfully and conscientiously we have no doubt, but there seemed to be a gradual falling off of interest in the school, and during the winter, the teacher becoming over-wearied with her labors, the school came to a sudden termination. Miss Crockett was succeeded by Miss Stella M. George who is at present (February 28,) teaching the school, with favorable indications of success. There were eleven weeks of school in the summer, nine in the autumn and we believe it is intended to have thirteen in the winter. The whole number of pupils have been 55. All have attended to Reading and Spelling, 29 to Writing, 36 to Arithmetic, 18 to Geography, 11 to Grammar, 3 to History, 2 to Algebra and 1 to Astronomy.

Names of pupils not absent or tardy. Summer term, Mattie Davis, Elvira Badger, Daisy Hills, Maud Sleeper, Vesta Sleeper, Eugene P. Davis, Frank Davis, George Gates, Clarence Kimball, Frank Quimby, George Seaver, Bertie Williams, Henry Williams, and Harvey Ray. Fall term, Henry Williams, Bertie Williams, and Elvira Badger.

DISTRICT NO. 4.

CHARLES H. DAY, Prudential Committee.

Mr. Charles R. Brickett taught the summer term of this school, with his usual happy success. Owing to Mr. Brickett's ill health the term was a short one, and for the same reason he did not return in the autumn, much to the regret of his numerous friends.

Miss Nellie G. Day succeeded as teacher for the fall term. This was Miss Day's first school. She was young, ambitious and well educated, and entered the field with a commendable degree of interest.

At the close of the school, a goodly number of parents and friends were present. Many of the classes did themselves much credit. We think that any defects in this school can be attributed to want of experience on the part of the teacher. Miss Day being called to take charge of another school, Mr. George E. Emerson succeeded as teacher for the winter term. For several good reasons, this school was not visited by your Committee. Mr. Emerson is well educated, and he, together with the Prudential Committee report that good discipline was maintained through the term. For some cause, there seems to have been a want of interest in the school and the attendance was small.

There were eight weeks of school in the summer, eleven in the fall, and seven in the winter; the whole number of pupils was thirty. All attending to Reading and Spelling; 20 to Writing; 18 to Arithmetic; 14 to Geography; 5 to Grammar; 1 to History; 2 to Composition; 1 to Philosophy.

Names of pupils not absent or tardy. 1st term, Mary Bly, Anna B. Hill, Gertie E. Simonds, William F. Hill; 2nd term, Gertie E. Simonds.

The whole number of scholars in all the schools attending not less than two weeks has been one hundred and thirty-seven, eighty-five boys and fifty-two girls. It is not known that there are any between the ages of fourteen and twenty-one who cannot read and write.

Our schools have as a whole contended with more difficulties than usual the past year. There has been a frequent change of teachers in some districts, Nos. 3 and 4 having had three each. As a natural consequence the attendance of pupils has been more irregular than formerly, and not as many names compared with the whole number appear upon the "Roll of Honor."

We do not speak of this in a tone of discouragement, for perhaps our success in the past three years has been rather exceptional, but if there is any abatement of interest among the friends of education we call upon them to renew their forces and gather up their strength for the coming year.

Respectfully Submitted,
ANNIE L. DOW, Supt. School Com.
